Religious Perspectives - Hinduism

What is the common thread between the different faiths?

“I look at it in this way. There is one destination that we all look at. In layman’s term I would say, we all want to go to Jacksonville. It’s the route that we take is different. That’s the basic difference. We all are ultimately going to go to Jacksonville. But some of you might go via Orlando. Some of you might go to Tampa and then go to Jacksonville. Some of you might just go to Jacksonville. So the religions are all focusing on one point; where to go ultimately. But it’s a different path that we follow to go to that one point. That’s my look at it.”
