

BIOGRAPHY

Cynthia D. Dunn joined the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Headquarters (HQ), Tax Exempt and Government Entities (TE/GE) division, Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) in Washington, DC as the EDI Director on July 25, 2004. Prior to TE/GE, Cynthia served as the Senior EEO Specialist for the IRS, Large and Mid-Size Business (LMSB) division. Cynthia also served as the Acting EEO Director for LMSB and the IRS Taxpayer Advocate Services (TAS). Cynthia started her Federal government career in 1980 as a GS-01 Clerk Typist in the Stay-in-School Program. She began her career in the field of EEO and Diversity in 1992.

Cynthia attended the University of Maryland-College Park and the European Division, Nuernberg, West Germany. Cynthia holds life memberships with the following National organizations: The Society for American Indian Government Employees (SAIGE), Blacks in Government (BIG), Federally Employed Women (FEW), and the Federal Asian Pacific American Council (FAPAC). She is also a member of Deaf in Government and other national EEO organizations, as well as IRS employee organizations. Cynthia resides in Waldorf, MD. She has two sons and four grandchildren.
